CONTENT and OBJECTIVES: A proof-oriented approach to and applications of propositional logic, sets, functions, relations, combinatorics, graphs and trees

TEXT: The text can be found at <https://www.gradegrinder.net/>. I suggest you get a paperless copy. You do need to pay and register for the software.

EVALUATION: The goal of the class is for the students to do all of the assigned problems from the LPL book and submit them to the Grade Grinder. (Don't forget to submit to instructor once you have completed and received feedback on a given assignment.) The list of HW problems can be found at <http://home.fau.edu/wmcgove1/web/Courses/MAD2104/HWMAD2104F20.html> Please only do the HWs that are to be turned in via the grade-grinder. If the problem has a pencil next to it, I do not expect you to submit it. However, please try these problems and make sure you understand them.

The HW will be worth 100% of the final grade. Problems must be completed by the deadline date. Late homework will only receive 50% credit. There are approximately 250 HWs.

If a student instead prefers to take an exam in lieu of some homework, then the student needs to notify the professor. An exam will be worth 20% of the final grade, in which case the HW is deducted that amount. If a student takes two exams then the HW will be worth 60% of the final grade.

Exam 1 will cover Chapters 1-7 LPL. This must be completed by October 16th.
Exam 2 will cover Chapters 8-13 LPL. This must be completed by December 5th.

In the case a student elects to take an exam, the student will be sent the exam via email, and have two hours to complete it and then scan it, and upload it to canvas. The exam will be proctored. Click here for student guidelines

The student and instructor will also connect via a webex meeting. The student is required to have a printer and a scanner.

COLLABORATION AND THE HONOR CODE. I expect you to abide by the Honors College Academic Honor Code. It is available at <http://www.fau.edu/honors/academics/honor-code.php>. I assume that you're here to learn. If you talk to each other, you will learn from each other, perhaps more than you will learn from me. I encourage you to form study groups. Try the homework yourself, and then get together with a study group to go over questions, and to study for quizzes and tests. You will learn a great deal from articulating your questions and explaining material to your peers. Collaboration on homework and in class worksheets is encouraged, but you must be sure you understand and can complete problems on your own, as collaboration on tests, quizzes and the final exam is forbidden.

Video, Audio or Other Recordings of class is forbidden without express permission of the instructor.

Classroom Etiquette Policy In order to enhance and maintain a productive atmosphere for education, personal communication devices, such as cellular telephones and pagers, are to be disabled in class sessions.

Policy on Accommodations

In compliance with the Americans with Disabilities Act Amendments Act (ADAAA), students who require reasonable accommodations due to a disability to properly execute coursework must register with Student Accessibility Services (SAS) and follow all SAS procedures. SAS has offices across three of FAU's campuses -- Boca Raton, SU 131 (561-297-3880); in Davie, LA 131 (954-236-1222); in Jupiter and all Northern Campuses, SR 111F (561-799-8585). Disability services are available for students on all campuses. For more information, please visit SAS website at www.fau.edu/sas/.

Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center

Life as a university student can be challenging physically, mentally and emotionally. Students who find stress negatively affecting their ability to achieve academic or personal goals may wish to consider utilizing FAU's Counseling and Psychological Services (CAPS) Center. CAPS provides FAU students a range of services – individual counseling, support meetings, and psychiatric services, to name a few – offered to help improve and maintain emotional well-being. For more information, go to <http://www.fau.edu/counseling/>

Academic Integrity Policy

Students at Florida Atlantic University are expected to maintain the highest ethical standards. Academic dishonesty is considered a serious breach of these ethical standards, because it interferes with the university mission to provide a high quality education in which no student enjoys an unfair advantage over any other. Academic dishonesty is also destructive of the university community, which is grounded in a system of mutual trust and places high value on personal integrity and individual responsibility. Harsh penalties are associated with academic dishonesty. For more information, see University Regulation 4.001.

The WHC Academic Honors Code is found here: <http://www.fau.edu/honors/academics/honor-code.php>.

Plagiarism

Plagiarism is the deliberate use and appropriation of another's work without identifying the source and trying to pass off such work as one's own. Any student who fails to give full credit for ideas or materials taken from another has plagiarized. This includes all discussion board posts, journal entries, wikis, and other written and oral presentation assignments. Plagiarism is unacceptable in the University community. Academic work must be an original work of your own thought, research, or self-expression. When students borrow ideas, wording, or organization from another source, they must acknowledge that fact in an appropriate manner. If in doubt, cite your source.

COVID-19 Statement

All students in face-to-face classes are required to wear masks during class, and students must sanitize their own workstations upon entering the classroom. Taking these measures supports the safety and protection of the FAU community. Students who do not adhere to these rules will be asked to leave the classroom and/or be removed from the course. Students experiencing flu-like symptoms (fever, cough, shortness of breath), or students who have come in contact with an infected person should immediately contact FAU Student Health Services (561-297-3512).
